

Hey
Hard to impress this girl to that extent
It clearly is amazing.
Thanks ☺☺
So excited

Dear Lynn timer and Captain Ash,
I knew making a visit to Marathon Rd to check out the progress I would be impressed having seen Diego's Instagram pics. However, impressed is a little soft a word for the full impact of what I saw. OMG, wow are really pathetic little expressions to use butholy cow I'm lost for words to describe how stunning the apartment is starting to look. Diego is a marvel. His attention to detail and ability to turn a challenge into something to marvel at is just amazing. All your finishes work and the combination with the dark timber joinery is just superb. The apartment is a sophisticated and spectacular space brimming with wonderful vistas that reveal themselves every time you move your eyes.
But enough of my raving. Hopefully you will see it for yourself very soon and will be equally impressed. I applaud you all for persevering through the often difficult and demoralising development process. I do hope you will feel justifiably rewarded. I for one think I it is fantastic.
Love to you both. Kaye. xx
